

West Virginia Board of Dental Examiners

Policy Regarding the Use of Botox and Other Dermal Fillers

The Dental Practice Act does not prohibit the use of Botox and other dermal fillers by a dentist licensed in the State of West Virginia. Dentists are limited to using these materials in the oral and maxillofacial area. Dentists are further limited based on the specific education and training received for providing these services.